2. Basis of preparation

The condensed interim condensed financial statements for the quarter ended December 31, 2025, of the Company and the Group have been prepared in accordance with Sri Lanka Accounting Standard LKAS 34, 'Interim Financial Reporting'. These interim statements should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2025.

3. Segment information

A segment is a distinguishable component of an enterprise that is engaged in either providing products or services (business segment) or in providing products or services within a particular economic environment (geographical segment), which is subject to risks and rewards that are different from those of the segment. However, there are no distinguishable components to be identified as segments for the company.

4. Accounting policies and estimates

The accounting policies are in line with the policies published in the audited financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2025.

The preparation of condensed consolidated interim financial statements requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, income and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

In preparing the condensed consolidated interim financial statements, the significant judgments made by the management in applying the group's accounting policies and the sources of uncertainty in estimates are consistent with the audited financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2025.

5. Stated Capital

The number of shares representing the stated capital is 180,030,942 ordinary shares and 1,200,000 non-cumulative preference shares as of December 31, 2025.

6. Contingent liabilities

There has not been a significant change in the nature of the contingent liabilities, which were disclosed in the audited financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2025.

7. Effect of changes in composition of the Group

There has not been a change in the composition of the Group which require disclosures in the financial statements for the 09 months ended December 31, 2025.
